THE VENUE

Nestled in the corner of Old Portishead stands an old Medieval and Tudor hamlet called Court House Farm. This site has history bursting at the seams, from its pre-doomsday settlement, to its romantic gardens of today. The buildings have all been lovingly restored with a gentle hand, resulting in the medieval site coming to life once more, offering a rustic vintage atmosphere with a touch of whimsy and romance.

With its multiple buildings and garden areas, the venue is very flexible for a bespoke wedding. You can decide where you would like to hold your ceremony and celebrations throughout the grounds and with our restored Medieval and Tudor Manors, members of your wedding party have accommodation for the entire weekend.

Throughout the grounds there are multiple areas for photography; including our long pergola, rose garden and manor garden. Our design gives you the feeling you are walking in a secret garden that time forgot, a romantic playground to share with family and friends to create a unique and special day.

We have a good relationship with our local church, making it an ideal choice for a formal service once their criteria are met.

If you just want to escape away from the crowd for a romantic wedding night, or have family stay in luxury accommodation within a 2 minute drive, our sister property is available for hire.
